SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. [] the Communist Parties in the Middle East are being given the following instructions, through the various Soviet diplomatic establishments:

- a. That no further demonstrations are to be held until the present order is rescinded, except in the event that prominent Communists are arrested or subjected to violence.
- b. That propaganda among the Palestinian refugees is to be intensified.
- c. That no acts of sabotage are to be undertaken.*
- d. That no display of arms is to be made until after the outbreak of war, and then only after orders are given. Such orders will not be given until it is evident that the country involved is well on the way toward falling into Soviet hands.
- e. That all military activities of the respective national governments are to be watched, and particularly any efforts by the Western powers to recruit local people for military service.
- f. That secure caches for arms are to be prepared, and that their locations be marked on maps.
